

Reconciliation Reflection Activity

September 30th marks the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, as well as Orange Shirt Day. To honour the survivors of residential schools, their families and those who never made it home, we invite you to participate in this reflection activity. At home, print this sheet, colour the shirts orange and then write on them messages of hope for the future. Display your shirts in a window or near the entrance to your home as a reminder of our shared history and our collective commitment to reconciliation.
